Mauricio Pochettino

Good afternoon and welcome back to Wembley.

I was proud of my players on Wednesday here against Barcelona. It is never easy when you concede a goal early in a game especially against a team like Barca, yet we showed determination, fight and quality in the second half.

The players never gave up and we came close to making it 3-3 in the latter stages. The Champions League challenges you against the best teams in Europe and we need to ensure it helps us become stronger and better as a team.

Every game remaining in the Champions League is a must-win for us now if we want to make it through to the next stage of the competition – we must continue to believe in ourselves and I certainly have faith in my players. We have shown in the past we are capable of putting together some fantastic runs of results and that is what we must do now.

The atmosphere was electric on Wednesday night and I thank you for that. When the noise levels are like that it drives us forward and gives us extra energy.

There are positives to take from the result and now we must move onwards together.

Today we face a different challenge as we welcome Cardiff City and their manager Neil Warnock. They are a team fighting hard for their first victory and will be keen to do so today. We know their strengths and will be focused on our own performance and trying to secure another three points to ensure we finish strongly going into the international break.

The games continue to come thick and fast and with injuries in the group, we need players to continue to step up when we need them as they did on Wednesday.

We have five wins from our first seven games in the Premier League and I believe we will continue to improve as the league table starts to take shape.

Enjoy the game.

LAMELA LAMENTS BARCA DEFEAT

Erik Lamela admitted the final 4-2 scoreline was tough to take after the team's efforts against Barcelona in the Champions League on Wednesday night.

The in-form, all-action attacking midfielder epitomised the players' spirit at Wembley as we were forced to chase the game from the second minute, when Philippe Coutinho fired the La Liga champions into the lead.

With Lionel Messi in imperious form, Barca took a 2-0 lead into half-time but we sparked a revival at the start of the second half and halved the deficit through Harry Kane's fine finish on 51 minutes.

Messi quickly restored their two-goal advantage but Erik got us to within touching distance once again with a deflected shot on 66 minutes.

Lucas Moura had a late chance to level but was denied by a last-ditch block from Clement Lenglet before Messi grabbed his second and Barca's fourth to seal the win for the group leaders.

"My feeling when we lose is not the best," Erik reflected. "We believed we could get something when we scored the first goal, then they scored again but soon we had another back. We kept believing until the end. The 4-2 scoreline is very hard to believe but we fought until the end.

"The team in the second half showed we wanted to win against a very, very good team. Barcelona have unbelievable players and so the game was very hard but the team tried. Barca managed the ball very well. They had a lot of possession, especially in the first half. In the second half we played better, we pressed a little better, but unfortunately we didn't get the point or the win."

After bagging his fourth goal in six games, it would be fair to say Erik is enjoying a fine spell following strikes against Liverpool, Brighton, Watford and now Barca.

Typically, his sole focus was on the team – and bouncing back in today's Premier League encounter against Cardiff City.

"I work for the team and really tried, but unfortunately we didn't win," he added. "I will keep working, keep putting energy in and we need to do everything we can to be ready for today's match against Cardiff. I want to win this game."

Spurs Greats Scoop Golf Double

Europe's Thomas Bjorn wasn't the only man lifting silverware on the golf course last week – some of our legendary former players showed they're still kings of the fairway by securing the 'double' in Essex.

Never missing an opportunity to get out on the course, a star-studded group of Spurs greats retained the Charles Newman Trophy in their annual battle at Chigwell Golf Club last week, before holding onto the John Charlick Trophy at Orsett Golf Club on Tuesday.

Both matches ended even but, as holders of both pieces of silverware, the legends were declared winners.

Captain Ossie Ardiles, Pat Jennings, John Lacy, John Pratt, Paul Miller, Cliff Jones, Mark Falco, Graham Roberts, Steve Sedgley, Ray Clemence, Clive Allen and Teddy Sheringham were joined by guest players Steve Lomas and Brian Stein as the match ended three-and-a-half apiece at Chigwell, while Dean Austin and Glenn Hoddle linked up with Ardiles, Pratt, Miller, Falco, Roberts, Sedgley, Clemence and Allen for a 5-5 draw at Orsett.

DATE SET FOR HAMMERS CLASH

Our Carabao Cup fourth round tie away to West Ham United has been scheduled for Wednesday 31 October at the London Stadium. Kick-off is at 7.45pm.

The draw saw us paired with the Hammers at this stage of the competition for the second season in a row. Last year, we took a 2-0 lead here at Wembley, only to suffer a 3-2 defeat.

We made it into the fourth round this time around after defeating Watford on penalties after a 2-2 draw at Stadium MK, while West Ham have overcome AFC Wimbledon (3-1) and Macclesfield Town (8-0) at the London Stadium so far in this year's competition.

Ticket information for the game can be found on page 49 of today's match programme.

AMOS INJURY UPDATE

Young midfielder Luke Amos will undergo surgery next week after rupturing an anterior cruciate ligament.

The 21-year-old sustained the injury during the first half last Friday's Premier League 2 win against Blackburn Rovers and the rehabilitation required means he will not be expected to return to action until next season.

Rikki representing Surrey and below, a cutting from our matchday programme when he was our mascot!'

MASCOT

This afternoon's mascot is 10-year-old Rikki Clark. He attends the Moss Lane School in Surrey and tells us his favourite players here at Spurs are Gary Lineker and Paul Gascoigne. Rikki also has another "favourite player" as his uncle is Leyton Orient player, Keith Day. As well as football, he also enjoys cricket. We hope you have an enjoyable day, Rikki.

FROM SURREY TO SPURS FOR CHAMPION CLARKE

Title-winning cricketer Rikki Clarke is in his Spurs 'window'.

A Spurs fan from birth who attended his first game aged just two, Rikki, now 37, helped Surrey claim cricket's County Championship for the first time since 2002 this summer.

But now his season is over, it means he's able to enjoy his other passion and he'll be attending as many of our games as he can before the cricket campaign starts up again!

Rikki's fine performances for Surrey – scoring an average of 31.25 runs with the bat and taking 47 wickets in 13 matches – earned a nomination for the PCA awards, cricket's equivalent of football's PFA awards.

The former England Test and ODI all-rounder was one of four players shortlisted for the PCA's Players' Player of the Year alongside Surrey skipper Rory Burns and Kent duo Joe Denly and Matt Henry. It's seen as the highest individual accolade in English cricket. The PCAs took place on Thursday night, after our print deadline – let's hope he made it a double to remember!

Rikki was at the crease when Surrey clinched the title against Worcestershire on 13 September. They lost just one of 14 matches and bringing the trophy back to the Oval clearly meant a lot.

"It's the one everyone wants to win, in footballing terms, it's the Premier League," he said.

"I started at Surrey with their Under-9s, worked my way through the youth system and signed my first professional deal at 18. I went away to Warwickshire for a period but always hoped there would be an opportunity to go back to Surrey and that door opened last year.

"I'm really pleased with the way it's gone for me but it's a massive team effort. Everyone stood up when they were needed with bat and ball and some amazing catches that can win games.

"These are the moments you look back on, turning points in games that get you the points to win the championship. Everyone has played their part but obviously being the age I am, to play my part, I'm really happy with that."

As for his PCA nomination, he added: "Only four of us have been nominated from the 18 counties, voted by players and staff, so to get some of those votes is such an honour because it's your peers who are recognising you've had a good season and contributed to the team's success."

Back to Spurs, and Rikki explained that we might have been talking to Glenn Clarke had things taken a different course back when he was born in 1981.

"My dad's favourite player is Glenn Hoddle, so he wanted to name me after him. But five or six days earlier, one of his best mates, an Arsenal fan, named his son Glenn!

"My dad spoke to my mum and said he wanted to name me after the whole starting 11! I think my mum said 'you are not doing that' so he ended up going with Ricky Villa. My dad lives in Dubai now but he still has a season ticket and still comes over regularly. He loves it!

"My very first game was against Forest, the first live televised game back in 1983 (2 October), I was two. The first game I truly remember was when I was a mascot back in 1992 (28 March) against Coventry, we won 4-3 and Gordon Durie scored a hat-trick.

"I got a season ticket around 1995 but then cricket started taking over and I had to give it up. Now I have a season ticket again and when cricket allows, I get to as many games as I can.

"It's quite a small window for me though. We start preparations for the cricket season in November now, then it's pre-season in March and we're into the season. I love going to the games, love watching Spurs. I'm not at the same level as those lads but I can relate to what they are going through, the pressure they are under. It's a release for me to go to games and I attend as many as I can."

TRAIN WITH OUR GLOBAL FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT COACHES

With October half-term approaching, young players can secure a place on one of our Player Development Programmes today. The courses, which are designed to inspire all players to reach their full potential, will run across Essex, North London and Hertfordshire as follows:

- Woodhouse College | North London - Monday 22 - Friday 26 October
- Epping St. Johns School | Essex - Monday 22 - Friday 26 October
- Haileybury | Hertfordshire - Monday 29 October - Friday 2 November

All of the programmes are planned and delivered by our development coaches who take inspiration from the training methods used by our First Team and Academy. Players will learn all aspects of the game, including goal scoring, 1v1 domination and possession.

A professional and structured environment is created to allow all players to demonstrate flair and individualism. Young players will have the opportunity to develop technically within similar training sessions that the likes of Harry Kane, Harry Winks and Kyle-Walker Peters have experienced.

Each player will be assessed by the Global Football Development team individually and will be grouped according to ability, giving them the opportunity to progress through our player development pathway.

Three crucial games in eight days and injuries to our goalkeeping core gave Paulo Gazzaniga his first major opportunity to impress in a Spurs shirt – and he didn't disappoint.

The Argentine shot-stopper had waited 10 months for another chance to shine following his first Premier League start for the club – when he kept a clean sheet on debut against Crystal Palace last year – but with recent injuries to Hugo Lloris and Michel Vorm, Paulo started in goal in three successive fixtures last week.

In our two league games against Brighton and Hove Albion and Huddersfield Town, with a Carabao Cup clash against Watford sandwiched in between, Paulo thrived in his most eventful period at the club.

"It was a very busy spell, but I'm happy because of the results and the wins over the three games," he reflected.

"As goalkeepers, we are there to help the team and the team are there to help us.

"I feel confident because this is my second year here at Spurs and I know more of the lads. I feel like I have the support of the people, the staff and my teammates as well. That makes me feel more comfortable when I play and I'm grateful to them for that - it is teamwork."

"As goalkeepers, we are there to help the team and the team are there to help us. I feel confident at Spurs"

Paulo was voted man of the match by the fans on social media for his performances against Brighton and Watford – indeed, as he was on his first start for our 1-0 win against Palace last season – and the backing of the supporters is something he takes immense pride from.

"It makes it easier for me and I'm grateful to the fans because when someone new goes » in goal we need that kind of support," said the former Rayo Vallecano, Southampton and Gillingham player. "I'm very thankful to them for that.

"The most important thing is to enjoy yourself. Every single minute and every single second I'm on the pitch – I enjoy it."

Our midweek venture to Stadium MK to face Watford in the third round of the Carabao Cup last week certainly produced the perfect opportunity for Paulo to take centre stage. Although unable to do anything about former Spur Etienne Capoue's last-minute deflected equaliser for the Hornets to make it 2-2 and send the game to penalties, Paulo's two spot-kick saves played a pivotal role in progressing us into the next round of the cup.

"It was tough but I think I was ready," confessed the 26-year-old, who denied spot kicks from Capoue and Domingos Quina.

"My mentality is always to think that I was going to save the penalty and with the help of our goalkeeping coach Toni Jimenez, I was ready.

"I always give everything when I am facing a penalty to try to save it, that has to be my mentality.

"I was a little frustrated because we conceded in the last minute of the game, but at the end of the penalties I was happy!"

DID YOU KNOW:

Not only has Paulo played under Mauricio Pochettino at Spurs and Southampton, but the pair were also born in the same town of Murphy, in the province of Santa Fe, in Argentina.

Since Paulo's move from Southampton in 2017, his role as third choice keeper, behind club captain Lloris and Vorm, has restricted his opportunities to start between the sticks.

But, as a result, no one knows more than Paulo how imperative it is to be prepared when your chance is presented to you.

"It is very important. Every minute in every single session at the training ground is so important and you have to try to do everything 100 percent because you never know when your time is going to come," he said.

"That's why it's not a coincidence that I » feel I've played well, it's all down to hard work and doing my job as well as I can in training, that is key."

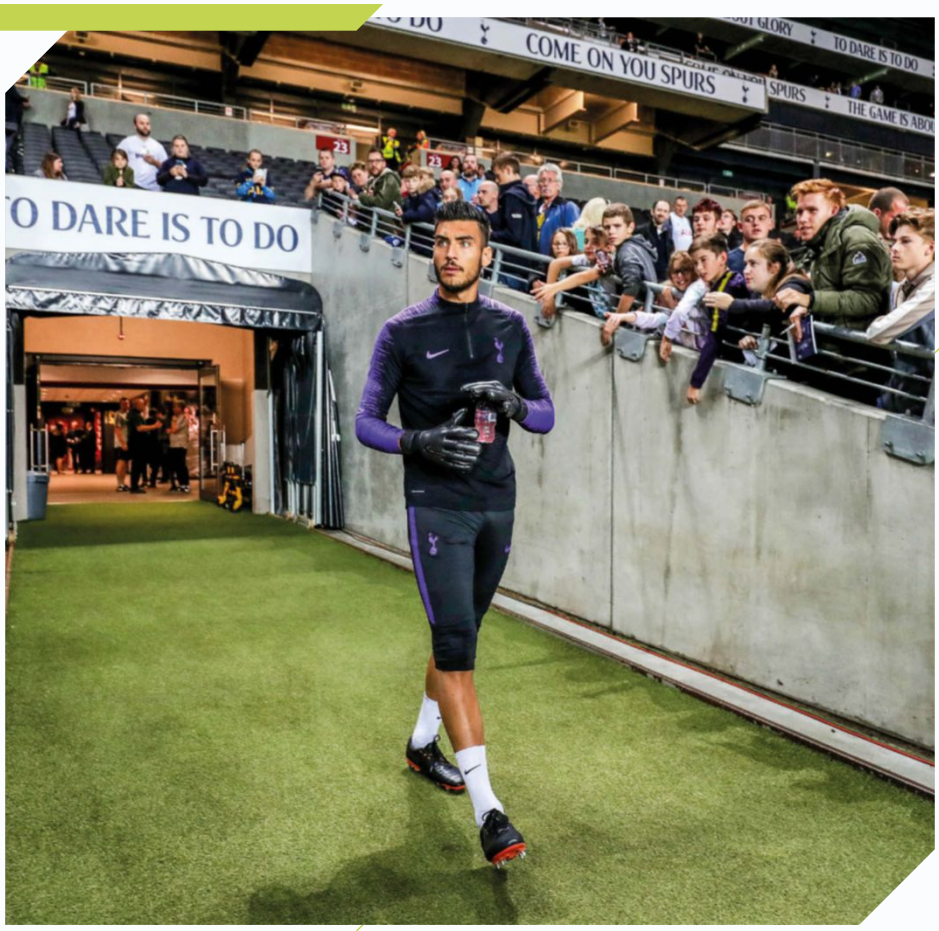
Hugo returned to the team in our midweek Champions League fixture against Barcelona after missing the previous six matches with a thigh injury. And with the Frenchman's return, the competition between the goalkeepers will begin to heat up – but Paulo sees the challenge only as an incentive to keep improving.

"It is healthy competition, it is good for everyone," he acknowledges. "For the one that's in the team, they know someone is behind them pushing for their place and the ones that are out of the team are pushing more because they want to be there.

"They have to produce every single session and do their best. I try to give my best, and our coaching staff help us to give 110 per cent.

"To have that competition for places is good for the team and it makes it difficult for

"It is healthy competition, it is good for everyone. For the one that's in the team, they know someone is behind them pushing for their place"



Mauricio and his staff to pick out an 11."

Such are the demands of the Premier League calendar, Paulo is now looking forward and has his attentions set upon the arrival of today's opponents Cardiff City, once again preparing himself to be called into action should the need arise.

The Bluebirds have endured a difficult return to the Premier League, facing Arsenal, Chelsea and Manchester City in their first seven games, during which they have failed to register a win and currently sit in the bottom two of the table – but that's something Paulo is ignoring.

"It doesn't matter what league position the teams you are going to play against are in because they are all strong," he explained.

"In England, teams are technically and physically strong, it's always a challenge to us and we have to build on the confidence from the games before.

"This is why I think the Premier League is the best league in the world because every single team is so difficult and when you play away, it's so hard as well. For me that is the key, every team competes at 100 per cent and that's good for the football in this country.

"But this afternoon, we are prepared because we have a strong squad and everyone is ready to play."

Paulo has played a major role in helping us rejuvenate our early season form and putting the team back on track. In capitalising on his opportunities last week and also those that may come in the future, he acknowledges the fans' support has also been a big part of the team's return to winning ways.

"I'm very thankful to them, especially because at MK it felt like home when it wasn't our stadium but the support was fantastic. Here at Wembley it's not always easy but we also feel that they are behind us. It's very good from them and we hope to keep them happy." ■

BRINGING BITCOIN TO FOOTBALL

TOP FACTS ABOUT BITCOIN

1. Launched in 2009, Bitcoin is a peer-to-peer digital currency that allows online money transfers without using an intermediary like a bank

2. Transactions are registered on a decentralised database called a 'blockchain', which are validated by mathematical calculations carried out by a network of computers across the world

3. In May 2010, the first ever Bitcoin transaction took place with two pizzas bought in exchange for 10,000 Bitcoins - then worth $25, now equivalent to around $70 million

4. Payments using Bitcoin can be transferred faster and with lower fees compared to banks

5. Blockchain technology, which underpins all crypto assets, is already revolutionising industries such as finance, health and law enforcement

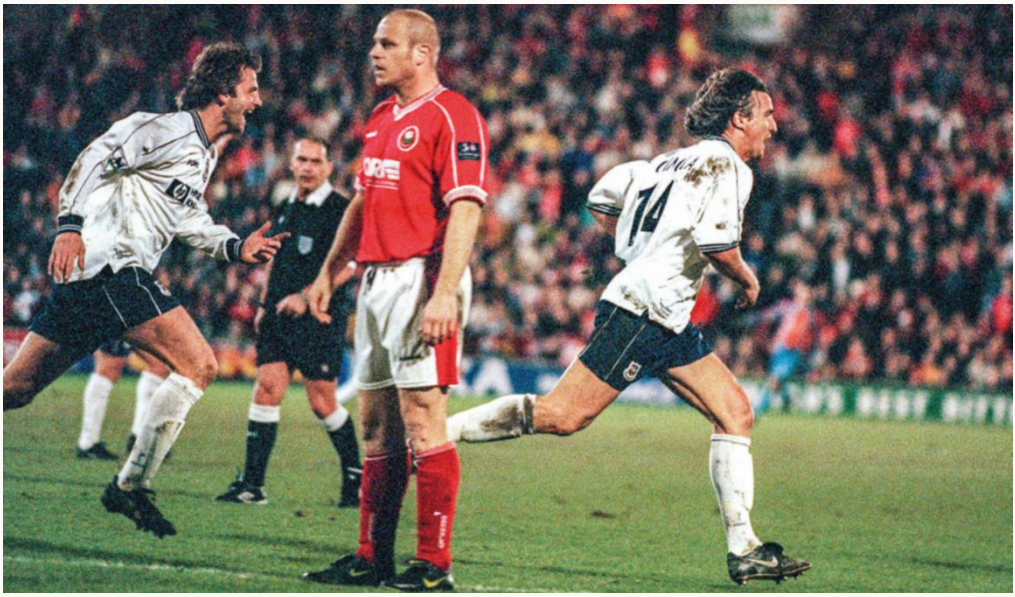
Golden Goal

EACH MATCHDAY, ANDY GREEVES LOOKS BACK ON A NOTABLE GOAL FROM OUR RICH HISTORY AND PROFILES ITS SCORER. THIS AFTERNOON, HE RECALLS DAVID GINOLA'S SLALOM RUN AND FINISH AGAINST BARNSLEY IN THE FA CUP IN 1999



Of his 22 strikes in 127 appearances for us between 1997 and 2000, the goal that perhaps best encapsulated David Ginola's individual flair and ability came at Oakwell in an FA Cup sixth round match against Barnsley on 16 March, 1999.

With 68 minutes gone in a goalless and tightly-fought encounter, the Frenchman collected a pass from full-back Mauricio Taricco close to the left touchline. He was immediately put under pressure by the Tykes' Nicky Eaden but the winger rode the challenge as he set off on a mazy run. As he approached the Barnsley penalty area, Ginola swerved Clayton Blackmore's sliding tackle and saw off the attentions of substitute Robin Van der Laan before turning Arjan De Zeeuw inside-out and slotting the ball past goalkeeper Tony Bullock from the edge of the six-yard-box. Cue wild scenes in the away end, as the winger removed his shirt and ran along the touchline in celebration.

"People still ask me about the FA Cup goal I scored for Spurs at Barnsley in the quarter-finals… when I cut in from the left flank, beat a trail of defenders and tucked the ball home," wrote Ginola in his autobiography Le Magnifique. "But I remember only the moment I struck the ball past the goalkeeper, I don't remember the first touch, or the dribble – it was like I was stepping aside and watching myself doing it. I can only remember the end of the action and can't tell you how I started it. It is like a blackout."

David's individual effort was enough to secure our place in the last four of the FA Cup as we won 1-0 in West Yorkshire. His goal was praised by then-manager George Graham. "That was so typical of him," said the Scot after the match. "He had a quiet 45 minutes then suddenly burst into life. It took a moment of skill like that to win what was a very dour sort of game."

Barnsley boss John Hendrie added: "Ginola is probably the only player in the country who could score a goal like that."

The following morning's newspapers waxed lyrical on the Frenchman's performance at Oakwell.

"David Ginola came up with another wonder goal last night to keep Tottenham on course for a Cup double… Ginola scored a goal which will be the subject of television replays for years to come," wrote the Daily Mail. "If French artist Ginola conjures up the kind of super show that enthralled Oakwell in this delayed FA Cup quarter-final, a packed Wembley is in for a treat," added The Sun.

Having already won the League Cup during the 1998-99 season, our victory at Barnsley fuelled hope among our players and supporters of a cup 'double'. Alas, we went down to a 2-0 defeat after extra-time in our subsequent FA Cup semi-final against Newcastle United at Old Trafford on 13 April, 1999. Despite that disappointment, the campaign was a triumphant one for both Spurs and Ginola, who was named as Professional Footballers' Association (PFA) and Football Writers' Association (FWA) Player of the Year.

"This is the best honour that I could receive," commented Ginola, on collecting the PFA award. "It is really important because it comes from my peers which means that I am doing my job in the right way. It is something that I will treasure. This season at Tottenham has been very enjoyable. I feel honoured."

Ginola netted seven times in 41 appearances during the 1998-99 season, with other memorable strikes including a long-range thunderbolt in a 3-1 League Cup triumph against Manchester United and a dipping volley in a 2-0 success over Leeds United in an FA Cup fifth round replay.

Signed in the summer of 1997 from Newcastle United, former Toulon, RC Paris, Brest and Paris Saint-Germain man Ginola quickly became a firm favourite of the White Hart Lane faithful. After making his debut against Manchester United on the opening weekend of the 1997-98 season, the first goal in our colours was a curling effort from the edge of the box in a 3-2 home victory over Sheffield Wednesday on 19 October, 1997.

David scored with a memorable individual effort in a 2-0 victory at Everton during the campaign before his aforementioned brace against Barnsley in December, 1997. His long-range effort in a 3-3 draw with Liverpool on 14 March, 1998, was another for his catalogue of stunning strikes as he finished his debut season with us with nine goals in 40 matches.

After his award-winning campaign in 1998-99, Ginola netted six times in 43 appearances in all competitions in his final season with us in 1999-2000 prior to a transfer to Aston Villa. His final goal came in a 1-0 victory at Leicester City while his last match in our colours came in our 3-1 victory over Sunderland at White Hart Lane on 14 May, 2000.

Ginola later turned out for Everton before retiring from playing in 2002. He won a total of 17 caps for France during his career, scoring three times.

What He Said

"I don't know why, but I tended to do well against Barnsley. They were good opposition for me. They are the only team against whom I have scored two goals in one game for Spurs (in a 3-0 victory on December 20, 1997) and also the team I scored some of my most memorable goals against."

- David Ginola

The Boys From Brazil

They are two Brazilian sporting icons.

One moved to America and became the first Brazilian to play in Major League Baseball, reach the World Series and make it to the MLB All-Star game.

The other started his football career at Sao Paulo, moved to France, won trophies galore with PSG, has earned 34 caps for Brazil so far and already this season, became only the fourth Brazilian to win the Premier League's Player of the Month.

Lucas Moura and Yan Gomes grew up in Sao Paulo and followed their sporting dream across the globe – and, as fate would have it, met on a July morning in Minneapolis this summer.

Lucas, our January signing from PSG who has started this campaign in such fine form, was preparing for the final International Champions Cup game of our US tour against AC Milan at the impressive US Bank Stadium, home of Minnesota Vikings. It just so happened that Yan's 162-match regular season brought his side, the Cleveland Indians, into the same city at the same time for a match-up against Minnesota Twins.

Miles from home, the pair were equally inspired by each other's sporting achievements when we sat them both down for a chat…

Growing up…

Yan: "I lived in a little city just outside of Sao Paulo called Mogi. It's known best for Neymar, who is from there. I grew up a Santos fan. I know Lucas played for Sao Paulo! Santos has a great history with all the legendary players who played there like Pele. I grew up playing soccer like most kids in Brazil and was introduced to baseball very randomly. I've been in love with the sport since. Anyway, I'm quite a big guy, I couldn't play soccer, I'd need to run around too much."

Lucas: "I grew up in Sao Paulo. I have great memories of playing football on the streets. I enjoyed it the maximum I could. There are problems in Brazil but Sao Paulo is a place I keep in my heart. I grew up with a brother and sister and my family has always been with me, my strength. My dream was to be a professional footballer and because of that and my family, I didn't choose a different path."

Lucas celebrates after scoring at Old Trafford

Following sporting dreams away from Brazil…

Yan: "I moved with my family. I was younger and we had a goal. We knew what we were going to do. We moved to better our lives but the one thing that never left us was our Brazilian heritage and we bring that wherever we go. It's tough to leave family."

Lucas: "It was difficult to leave my country. I miss my family and my friends but my dream was always to play for a big club in Europe, in a bigger championship. If you want something in life you have to work hard, you have to do something like this. Life is like this. Life in Brazil is difficult but with sport, we can change things and give something back. For me, it's like a dream. I'm so happy to play for Tottenham and to make my family proud."

Lucas on Yan…

"Soccer in Brazil is a way of life. Everyone wants to play soccer and it's great to see a guy who grew up in Brazil doing so well in another major sport. It's good for our country and I'm happy to know Yan. It's a great achievement. It's not normal in Brazil because this sport is not famous in our country. For us, it's a proud moment and I'm happy for him."

Yan on Lucas…

"Growing up in Brazil with so much soccer going on, players like Lucas are our idols, guys we look up to, especially when they make it to the national team. I know a lot of people in Brazil look up to Lucas and appreciate how successful he has been. I got to play in baseball's WBC (World Cup) and to see how passionate everyone is about us…times that by 100 and you can imagine how much they look up to the footballers! It's not just the national team but players who have moved to Europe and are playing for great clubs like Tottenham, it's amazing. It's awesome to see how that passion for sport in Brazil goes worldwide."

Cardiff City

Club Info:

Founded: 1899
Ground: Cardiff City Stadium
Capacity: 33,280
Position 2017-18: 2nd (Championship)
Highest Premier League position: 20th (2013-14)

Manager:

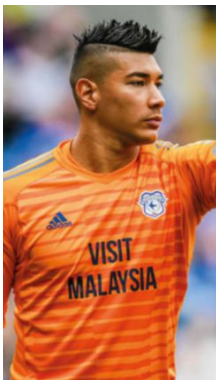
NEIL WARNOCK

A former winger, who made 327 league appearances in an 11-year playing career, he moved quickly into management and holds the record for the most promotions in English football as a manager. Warnock took over at Cardiff in October, 2016, finishing 12th in his first season with the Welsh club, before guiding them to the Premier League with a second place finish last season. He had previously led Crystal Palace in the Premier League in 2014.

Form Guide:

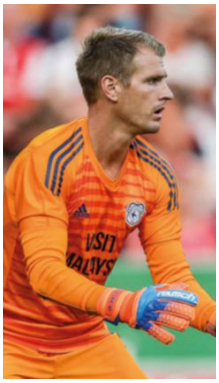
The Bluebirds currently sit in the bottom two and have lost the last four games on the bounce – and with draws against Newcastle and Huddersfield, the newly promoted side are still looking for their first win in the Premier League. Albeit, Cardiff were dealt with a difficult start and a run of three games against Arsenal, Chelsea and Manchester City was always going to be a challenge to pick up points. But a 2-1 home loss to Burnley last weekend has continued Cardiff's sticky start to life in the Premier League.

01 Neil ETHERIDGE



Position: Goalkeeper
Date of birth: 07.02.90
Signed on a free transfer from Walsall in 2017, Etheridge became the first player from the Philippines to play in the Premier League in August when he lined up against Bournemouth. Spending the early part of his career at Fulham, he had spells with Oldham and Charlton before joining Cardiff.

12 Alex SMITHIES



Position: Goalkeeper
Date of birth: 05.03.90
Formerly with Queens Park Rangers, he became their first choice keeper in the 2016/17 season – keeping seven clean sheets in 46 appearances. He joined the Bluebirds in June and has started every Premier League game on the bench so far. He started out at Huddersfield Town, making over 250 appearances.

02 Lee PELTIER

Position: Defender
Date of birth: 11.12.86
The 31-year-old made his Premier League debut in Cardiff's opening day defeat to Bournemouth –14 years after turning professional at Liverpool during their famous 2004/05 European-conquering season. He arrived from Huddersfield Town in 2015 after two spells with the Terriers.

04 Sean MORRISON

Position: Defender
Date of birth: 08.01.91
Club captain who led the Bluebirds to promotion last season, winning their Player of the Year award. Born in Plymouth, he signed for his hometown club as a youngster before moving onto Swindon Town where he made his first senior appearance. He joined Reading in 2011 and gained his first experience of Premier League football, before taking on the captaincy in Jobi McAnuff's absence – the job he has on a full-time basis now with Cardiff.

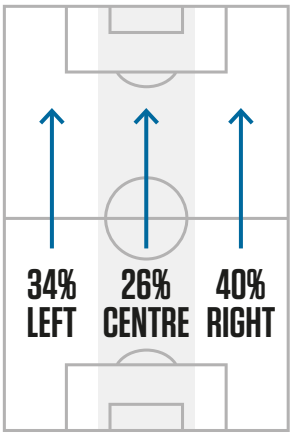
22 Sol BAMBA

Position: Defender
Date of birth: 13.01.85
Spotted by PSG as a youngster, he began his senior career in Scotland with Dunfermline Athletic and Hibernian. A first international call-up to Ivory Coast followed, as well as a move to Leicester City. Spent time with Trabzonspor, Palermo and Leeds United, before joining Cardiff.

03 Joe BENNETT

Position: Defender
Date of birth: 28.03.90
Started his career with Middlesbrough, making 85 appearances before he left for Aston Villa – going on to have loan spells for Brighton & Hove Albion, Bournemouth and Sheffield Wednesday. Joining Cardiff in 2016, he has also been capped by England at Under-19, Under-20 and Under-21 levels.

On The Attack



06 Jazz RICHARDS

Position: Defender
Date of birth: 12.04.91
Born in Swansea, he has been capped 13 times for Wales – most notably as part of the squad that made the semi-finals of Euro 2016. He represented both Swansea City and Cardiff City at youth level, before joining the former. He made his first permanent move to Fulham in 2015, and then made the switch to Cardiff.

18 Greg CUNNINGHAM

Position: Defender
Date of birth: 31.01.91
Born in Galway, he began his career at Manchester City. Joining them as a youngster, he then moved on to Bristol City where he established himself at left back, while also operating in the midfield. He moved to Preston North End in the summer of 2015 before making the switch to Cardiff City in June.

08 Joe RALLS

Position: Midfielder
Date of birth: 13.10.93
Still only 24, he has made over 150 appearances for the Welsh side, joining them as a youngster from Farnborough. Despite a short loan spell at Yeovil Town, he has only played for Cardiff in his senior career, adopting a number of different positions throughout his years at the club.

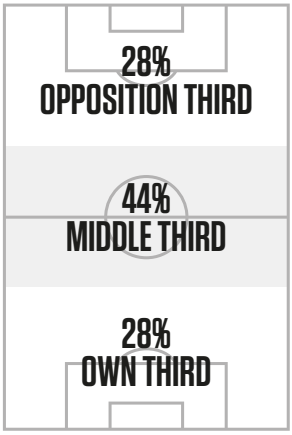
33 Junior HOILETT

Position: Midfielder
Date of birth: 05.06.90
The Canadian-born winger was the first signing Neil Warnock made as he took over the reigns at Cardiff City. As a 13-year-old, he joined the Blackburn Rovers academy, and gained experience on loan with German clubs SC Paderborn and St Pauli, before scoring 12 Premier League goals in 81 appearances for Rovers.

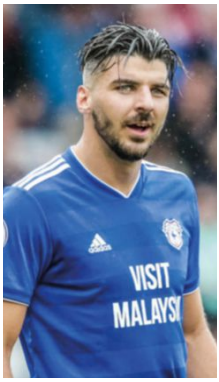
11 Josh MURPHY

Position: Midfielder
Date of birth: 24.02.95
Murphy joined for £11 million from Norwich City in the summer. Both him and twin brother, Jacob, who plays for Newcastle, joined Norwich together at Under-12s and signed professionally in 2011. Had loan spells at Wigan Athletic and Milton Keynes Dons and has England caps for the Under-18s, Under-19s and Under 20s.

Action Zones



13 Callum PATERSON



Position: Midfielder
Date of birth: 13.10.94
Moved to South Wales after six years at Hearts, operating as a left-back and occasionally a striker. His versatility has seen him adopt an attacking midfield role at Cardiff and he ended as the club's top goalscorer last season with 10 goals as they gained promotion to the Premier League. A Scottish international.

New Man In The Middle

21 Victor CAMARASA

Position: Midfielder
Date of birth: 28.05.94
A deadline day signing, the Spanish midfielder joined on loan from La Liga club, Real Betis. With over 100 La Liga appearances under his belt, including games against Barcelona and Real Madrid, he brings style and precision on the ball along with his 6ft stature. He began his senior career with Levante, then spent a season on loan with Alaves, before moving to current parent club, Real Betis. His four Spain Under-21 caps represent his undoubted talent that Neil Warnock will hope to unlock in the Cardiff midfield.

20 Loic DAMOUR

Position: Midfielder
Date of birth: 08.01.91
A product of the famous Clairefontaine Academy and a former French youth international, box-to-box midfielder Damour spent most of his career in the second and third tiers of the French league before moving to South Wales on a free transfer in 2017. A regular in the promotion-winning campaign last term.

14 Bobby REID

Position: Forward
Date of birth: 02.02.93
Part of the PFA Championship Team of the Year last season, scoring 19 goals for Bristol City – he made his move across the Welsh border this summer. During an eight year stay at Ashton Gate, he was loaned out to Cheltenham, Oldham and Plymouth before returning and helping Bristol City to an 11th place finish last season.

09 Danny WARD

Position: Forward
Date of birth: 11.12.91
The Yorkshireman scored his first Premier League goal last month with a header against Arsenal. Previously at Bolton Wanderers, Huddersfield Town and Rotherham United, Ward also experienced multiple loan spells before his move to Cardiff City in June, 2017. His move came off the back of a 12-goal season for a struggling Rotherham side.

Date of birth: 24.08.90
Born in Gateshead, the 6ft 2ins striker progressed through the youth ranks at Carlisle United and made his first team debut aged 17. He moved onto Sheffield Wednesday and made over 100 appearances for the club, then going on to sign for Bolton before joining Cardiff in January this year.

19 Nathaniel MENDEZ-LAING

Position: Forward
Date of birth:15.04.92
After signing from Rochdale last summer, the winger bagged five goals in his first five games as he was named the Championship's Player of the Month for August. The 26-year-old featured in all three of the Bluebirds' opening Premier League fixtures.

10 Kenneth ZOHORE

Position: Forward
Date of birth: 31.01.94
As a youngster Kenneth Zohore was hailed as one of the top striking prospects in the game. Born in Copenhagen, he signed for his hometown club in 2010, playing for them in the Champions League against Barcelona and becoming the second youngest goalscorer ever in the Danish Superliga. He moved to Fiorentina on his 18th birthday, from where he had loan spells with Brondby and Goteborg. Initially joining Cardiff on loan, he signed a three-year deal in July, 2016, and now has scored 23 times for the Bluebirds.

BRINGING TO LIFE ARCHIVE IMAGES AND REFLECTIONS ON PAST HOME AND AWAY ENCOUNTERS BETWEEN SPURS AND CARDIFF CITY

BY JOHN FENNELLY

HOME

Cardiff City goalkeeper David Marshall joins the attack late in the game as Ole Gunnar Solskjaer's side push for an equaliser at White Hart Lane in March, 2014.

City were second from bottom on the day and desperate for points as they trailed to a 28th minute goal from Roberto Soldado. But we held on for a narrow victory as we finished sixth in the table while the Bluebirds, new boys to the Premier League, made an immediate return to the Championship as the division's bottom club.

Fulham and Norwich City also went down, replaced by Leicester City, Burnley and Queens Park Rangers. Manchester City were champions while Arsenal lifted the FA Cup having beaten us in the third round. Cardiff reached round five.

Manchester City also won the League Cup, beating Sunderland at Wembley. West Ham eclipsed both Cardiff and Spurs on their way to the semis where they were hammered 9-0 on aggregate by City.

Both Spurs and Cardiff changed their manager earlier that season with Tim Sherwood replacing Andre Villas-Boas and Solskjaer in for Malky Mackay at Cardiff City Stadium.

We had also won by the only goal when the two sides met in Cardiff in September that season. This time we needed a stoppage time strike from Paulinho who back-heeled Erik Lamela's low cross past an overworked Marshall, who made a succession of fine saves throughout to keep us at bay. Gylfi Sigurdsson also hit the home bar with a powerful shot.

Our former players Steven Caulker and Fraizer Campbell played in both games against us for Cardiff.

AWAY

Cardiff midfielder Billy Hardy flies through the air while Spurs goalkeeper Bill Jacques attempts to clear as Spurs and Cardiff play out a 1-1 draw in an FA Cup fourth round replay at Ninian Park in March, 1922.

Wales international forward Len Davies, still City's record goalscorer, and England's Jimmy Seed shared the goals ahead of the replay at White Hart Lane which we won 2-1. This time our marksmen were Charlie Wilson and Jimmy Dimmock with Jimmy Gill, who scored Cardiff's first ever goal in the Football League, netting for the visitors.

Hardy remains a legend at Ninian Park having played in their FA Cup Final appearances in that same decade. He was signed for £25 in 1911, with manager Fred Stewart reportedly having to pay the fee himself!

Our triumph led to us facing Preston at Hillsborough in the semis where our defence of the trophy we had won the year before ended in a 2-1 defeat. Seed was again our goalscorer. Huddersfield would beat Preston in the final.

However we won the Charity Shield at the start of the season and ended up runners-up to Liverpool in Division One. Cardiff finished in fourth spot while Bradford City and Manchester United were relegated. Nottingham Forest and Stoke replaced them.

Our two league meetings with the Bluebirds saw us win by the only goal in Cardiff on the opening day where Jimmy Banks notched our goal. The return at the Lane came a week later when we won 4-1.

Winger Andy Thompson scored twice for us with England international Dimmock and Tommy Clay, from the penalty spot, completing our goal log. George West replied for City.

FROM THE ACADEMY

Rodel Richards lashes home our equaliser against Barcelona

UEFA Youth League: Spurs 1-1 Barcelona

Rodel Richards' goal on the stroke of half-time saw our Under-19s draw 1-1 with Barcelona in the UEFA Youth League at Hotspur Way on Wednesday afternoon.

We immediately took the game to the holders with energetic forward pressing but Joan Rojas Castilla broke the deadlock for the visitors with a header from a free-kick on 24 minutes – one of a number of set-pieces we struggled to defend during the game.

Richards fired in following Jamie Bowden's pass but the second half was a different story for us – our lively possession football which left the Spaniards largely without an answer in the first period replaced by a need to defend solidly. TJ Eyoma and goalkeeper Brandon Austin combined to divert a dangerous ball onto the post but, despite fatigue setting in, we were able to see out the game.

Spurs: Austin (c), Hinds, Brown (Binks 90+1), Bowden (White 67), Eyoma, Lyons-Foster, Markanday (Patterson 71), Oakley-Boothe (A Shashoua 46), Richards, Maghoma (Roles 90+1), Bennett. Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, Cirkin.

WINNING START IN LEAGUE CUP

Defender Brooklyn Lyons-Foster won a penalty for our opening goal – converted by Harvey White – and then headed in a crucial second as we beat Wolverhampton Wanderers 2-1 in our first group match of this season's Under-18 Premier League Cup last Saturday.

In the ascendency for the majority of the game at Hotspur Way, our 2-0 lead during the second half could have been a lot more, but for all Rayan Clarke's bursts into space down the left flank or the hard graft at centre-forward of Rodel Richards, visiting goalkeeper Jamie Pardington's net was only breached twice. Austin Samuels lashed in from a rare chance for Wolves six minutes from time, but 2-1 wasn't a fair reflection of our attacking endeavours.

Spurs: Oluwayemi, Tainio (Okedina 57), Cirkin, White, Statham, Lyons-Foster, Pochettino (Mukendi 57), A Shashoua (c), Richards, Patterson (Cooper 73), Clarke. Substitutes (not used): Kurylowicz, Thorpe.

RIVALS HAMMERED

A ruthless second-half display saw us win 9-0 at West Ham in the Under-18 Premier League a fortnight ago, maintaining our unbeaten start to the season ahead of today's home match against Norwich City.

Harvey White's cross went in off West Ham's Emmanuel Longelo and Rodel Richards nabbed a quick second just before half-time at Little Heath. From there, we ran riot in the second half with White (penalty), Richards, Troy Parrott (2), J'Neil Bennett, Dilan Markanday and Rayan Clarke all on target against a young West Ham side featuring a couple of Under-16s players.

Jamie Bowden wins possession against West Ham

Spurs: Oluwayemi, Tainio, Cirkin, Bowden, Lyons-Foster, White, Markanday, A Shashoua (c, Statham 71), Parrott, Richards (Clarke 60), Bennett (Pochettino 64). Substitutes (not used): Kurylowicz, Okedina.

GETTING TO KNOW... LUIS BINKS

Left-footed defender Luis Binks joined our Under-18s full-time over the summer, scored on his debut against Brighton on the opening day of the season and has already stepped up to make a couple of appearances in our Development Squad this term.

Born and raised in Gillingham, his mum Jo served the Gills as Club Secretary during Tony Pulis' reign as manager in the late-1990s and still works at the League One club, where Luis used to hold a season ticket. A keen autograph collector as a youngster, Luis met Diego Maradona in one of the hospitality boxes at Stoke City v Liverpool in 2010, with the then-Argentina manager in attendance to run the rule over Javier Mascherano ahead of that year's World Cup. Luis also met Stoke's first team squad around that time and was presented with Peter Crouch's training shirt, which he still proudly owns.

The 17-year-old's great uncle Steve Binks used to be Director of Football at Kent non-league club Chatham Town, while his father Tom played for them. These days, Luis likes to watch Jan Vertonghen, Davinson Sanchez and Toby Alderweireld in training at Hotspur Way: "Jan's reading of the play and positioning is so good, Davinson's tight one-v-one defending is great and Toby's range of passing impresses me as well," he said. "I've got to become stronger at passing on my right foot."

Luis also names Real Madrid defender Sergio Ramos and boxer Floyd Mayweather Jr as sporting individuals he looks up to, while, if he had to choose a career path away from football, he says: "I'd want to go into the fashion industry, picking out clothes for people. I reckon I could find something colourful for my team-mate, J'Neil Bennett, who is quite a character!"

IN DEVELOPMENT

Premier League 2: Blackburn Rovers 1-3 Spurs

Our Under-23s showed strength in adversity to beat Blackburn Rovers in the Premier League 2 at the Lancashire FA County Ground last Friday night.

Having lost heavily to Everton in their previous outing and with two of the more experienced members of the side, Luke Amos and Shayon Harrison, limping out of the action during the first half, a big performance was needed.

Thankfully, we got one. Harrison netted twice before his 35th-minute departure, Dan Butterworth reduced the arrears for Rovers (42 minutes) and Tom Glover – back in goal after a season on loan in his homeland of Australia with Central Coast Mariners – made a fine save before the impressive Paris Maghoma restored our two-goal cushion just before half-time.

Blackburn Rovers: Fisher, Doyle (Vale 46), Evans, Tomlinson, Carter, Grayson (c), Buckley, Lyons, Simmonds (Candlin 62), Butterworth, Mols. Substitutes (not used): Albinson, Wilson, Saadi.

Spurs: Glover, Hinds, Brown, Amos (c, Bennett 22), Tanganga, Marsh, Maghoma, Skipp, Harrison (Duncan 35), Oakley-Boothe, Roles (Dinzeyi 90). Substitutes (not used): De Bie, Eyoma.

Above: Paris Maghoma rounds Blackburn goalkeeper Andy Fisher on his way to scoring our third

COMING UNSTUCK AT TOFFEES

Three goals in each half saw Everton run out commanding 6-0 winners in our Premier League 2 clash at Goodison Park on 23 September.

Two early goals from set pieces, one from the head of Tyias Browning and the other an unfortunate George Marsh own goal, gave our young side, featuring a handful of Under-18s players playing above their age group, an uphill task. Fraser Hornby, Antony Evans, Bassala Sambou (penalty) and Josh Bowler subsequently completed the scoring.

Everton: Hilton, Charsley, Galloway, Adeniran, Browning (c), Foulds, Dowell, Markelo, Hornby (Sambou 56), Evans (Bowler 56), Broadhead (Mampala 70). Substitutes (not used): Hewelt, Feeney.

Spurs: De Bie, Eyoma (Roles 57), Brown, Tanganga, Dinyezi (Patterson 68), Binks, Maghoma, Marsh (c), Harrison, Skipp, Oakley-Boothe. Substitutes (not used): Freeman, Duncan, Mukendi.

PAIN EASES FOR WAYNE

Under-23s coach Wayne Burnett praised his players for the way they bounced back from a tough few days last week. After crashing 6-0 at Everton, our young professionals produced the ideal response to run out 3-1 winners at Blackburn five nights later.

"We had a difficult game at Everton, didn't play particularly well and had some reflections on that," explained Wayne. "We spoke openly and honestly and there were things said that needed to be said. I thought we responded really well.

"At times we gave the ball away too easily against Blackburn and took too many touches but the players are young and they are learning.

"We managed the game very well. We limited them to chances and shots at our goal. We said at half-time that we had a two-goal lead and it at least had to stay that way – that was the minimum requirement, and they did that."

OFF TO THE VALLEY

Due to ground works being carried out at Gillingham's Priestfield Stadium, our Development Squad's Checkatrade Trophy match away to the Gills this Tuesday night (9 October) will now be played at The Valley, home of Charlton Athletic.

Kick-off remains at 7.45pm and tickets will be available on the night from Charlton's box office, priced at £15 for adults, £10 for seniors and £5 for Under-18s.

Meanwhile, the venue for our Premier League 2 fixture away to Derby County on Sunday 28 October has now been confirmed as the Loughborough University Stadium. Kick-off will be at 2pm.

SKIPP NOMINATED

Oliver Skipp has been nominated for the Premier League 2 September Player of the Month award.

The 18-year-old central midfielder was ever-present in the competition throughout last month and supplied an assist in our 2-0 home win over Manchester City on 14 September. Skipp is one of nine players on the shortlist, with the Premier League set to announce the winner next week.

Full-back Kyle Walker-Peters was our last player to collect the accolade back in December, 2015.

Josie Green squeezes between two Palace defenders

ADDISON LEAVES EAGLES GROUNDED

Angela Addison grabbed the winning goal as Spurs Ladies pegged back Crystal Palace Ladies to win 2-1 and maintain their 100 per cent league record.

Kallie Balfour had given the hosts the lead at Bromley FC's Hayes Lane ground after she converted an early penalty kick but soon afterwards, Rianna Dean scored her third goal of the season to cancel out the home side's advantage. Young Addison secured the three points in the second half as she netted her first league goal for the club.

Victory in the London derby meant we moved up to second place in the FA Women's Championship after our third straight league victory. We are now the only team in the league yet to drop points this season.

Manager Karen Hills made three changes to the team which beat Leicester City Women in their previous game as Chloe Morgan reclaimed her place in goal, Lucia Leon replaced Sophie McLean and Addison came in for Jessica Naz, who has joined up with the England squad for the UEFA Women's Under-19 Championship qualifying round in Croatia.

Palace went ahead in the seventh minute as a late challenge from Renée Hector in the 18-yard box on Hope Nash resulted in a penalty which Balfour struck with power past Morgan, into the bottom right corner.

Seven minutes later, Megen Lynch failed to deal with a dangerous cross in from Megan Wynne as she parried the ball into Dean's path and the striker made no mistake from close range to equalise for Spurs Ladies.

Midway through the second half, Addison grabbed what proved to be the decisive goal after she latched on to a delicate through ball from Coral-Jade Haines to loft the ball over Lynch into the back of the net.

But we were made to work hard for the win as Palace pressed for an equaliser and came close on two occasions following Addison's goal, Balfour rattling the crossbar with a thunderous strike from the edge of the penalty area and then moments

"The players were mentally strong and I'm pleased with how they managed the game"

Celebrations after Angela Addison's winner

later she almost poked the ball in from close range, but thankfully Morgan reacted quickly to clear the danger.

Head Coach Juan Amoros acknowledged that the team wasn't firing on all cylinders but was pleased to see them grind out a result.

"We are very pleased because it wasn't our best game but we came out on top and deserved to win," he said. "On the other side of things we need to be demanding with ourselves and the players know we could have done some things better.

"We want to achieve something and we must look at the things we haven't done so well today, but overall of course we are happy. The players were mentally strong and I'm pleased with how they managed the game."

Match-winner Addison added: "We were talking in the dressing room about me peeling off wide before making my run into the middle and that's what I did. The ball got through to me, I just threw my body at it and it went in.

"It was tough, scrappy and physical and it wasn't a pretty game. We grew more into it during the second half. We got better towards the end of the match after it had got a bit risky at one stage, but we came out with the win and that's all that matters."

Rianna Dean levels the scores

Spurs Ladies: Morgan, Wynne (Baptiste 60), Hector, Schillaci (c), Neville, Leon, Green, Haines (Martin 82), Wiltshire (Meiwald 90+3), Dean, Addison. Substitutes (not used): Gibbon, Vyse.

A word from our Executive Members

As we look forward to the opening of our New Stadium, we turn the spotlight on those companies who have booked as Executive Members and discover the background behind their selection of Premium Experiences. Today, we feature Hudson London as they join the most exclusive and prestigious area in the New Stadium – The H Club.

Hudson London have been designing expertly made footwear for both men and women for nearly 30 years and are stocked by some of the most iconic retailers throughout the UK, Europe and the USA.

The Hudson brand was founded by Marc Verona in 1990 and is based in Hoxton, East London. The business has always focused on quality, by sourcing the best materials and working closely with its suppliers and factories, to utilise the most sought-after processes and techniques available. Hudson delve into every last detail of the design to provide beautifully crafted footwear.

All of the brands' products are designed at their studio in Hoxton, and the influence of the capital can often be seen in the quirky designs.

SERGE SHAPES UP WITH LOCAL GROUP

To celebrate National Fitness Day recently, Serge Aurier joined local people at an aerobic workout led by our Foundation at Tottenham Community Sports Centre.

The club's charitable arm delivers a range of programmes that improve the physical and mental health of people living in the local community, engaging hard-to-reach audiences in and around Tottenham by offering preventative, rehabilitation and health improvement sessions.

Programmes include Shape Up With Spurs, a 10-week exercise and nutritional project that is geared towards people who are obese or overweight, Move For You, a 12-week exercise referral programme for anyone living with and beyond cancer and REIGNITE, personal training sessions for people aged 50 and over.

National Fitness Day encourages the nation to get active and raise awareness of the importance of leading healthy lifestyles. Today, thousands of people around the country are taking part in yoga classes, treadmill challenges, HIIT classes, dance-offs and mass walks to help celebrate the day.

Nzinga, a local resident who takes part in Shape Up With Spurs, said: "Before joining the programme I used to struggle to walk and found it difficult to get around.

"After taking part in the sessions, I have lost 30kg and now I'm able to jog and play badminton with my friends.

"As well as losing weight, the sessions have helped me to understand the importance of eating a balanced diet and have given me opportunities to meet like-minded people in the local community."

Serge said: "As a professional athlete keeping fit is an important part of my job, however it's not always easy for everyone to find the time to exercise regularly.

"Events such as these bring the community together and help show the simple and easy steps you can take to become more active whilst having fun."

Working To Improve Local People's Digital Skills

Tottenham Hotspur Foundation has started working with Accenture to develop a series of groundbreaking projects designed to improve the employability and digital skills of local people.

The Foundation will roll out Accenture's 'Skills to Succeed Academy', a free online employability training tool and their 'Accenture Digital Skills', a series of free online courses that teach people the digital skills required to thrive in employment.

The new partnership also seeks to support local people who are returning to work after an extended career break, looking to re-skill, or currently not in education, employment or training.

The course will help people make sense of the ever-evolving jobs market to help them to be successful in finding long-term, sustainable employment. Over a one-year period, the programme will upskill up to 3,000 local people.

The Foundation is also supporting Accenture to develop a brand-new online tool called 'Envision' which is due to launch later this year. This innovative piece of technology will recommend suitable careers for people based on their transferable skills and experience, and then direct them to a live jobs board where they can apply for the position immediately.

This will include positions at our new stadium, our suppliers, local employers and at Accenture.

The newly funded programmes will run in conjunction with the service the Foundation currently provides for local people out of Percy House, a major community enterprise, employment and skills hub located on Tottenham High Road.

As well as giving local people one-stop access to vocational training and job opportunities from a range of employers connected to the club, it delivers over 95,000 hours of community development, health, enterprise, education and sports programmes every year to those living in the club's local area.

To date, the Club and its Foundation has created 1,694 sustainable, long-term education and employment opportunities for local people through our stadium development scheme and sport-led regeneration of the area. Jobs have been delivered across a range of industries, including retail, education, construction, hospitality, IT and security, with all going to local people.

Sarah Ebanja, Chief Executive at Tottenham Hotspur Foundation said: "We are delighted to be working alongside a globally renowned business such as Accenture and using their cutting-edge tools, alongside our existing training methods, to upskill local people with their digital skills gap."

BREAKING NEW GROUND

AS WE PREPARE FOR THE OPENING OF THE TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR STADIUM, ANDY GREEVES TAKES A LOOK AT OTHER 'NEW' STADIA WE HAVE PLAYED AT, WHICH HAVE OPENED SINCE THE INCEPTION OF THE PREMIER LEAGUE IN 1992. THIS AFTERNOON, HE EXPLORES THE HISTORY OF THE CARDIFF CITY STADIUM

Built just a couple of hundred yards away from Cardiff City's former Ninian Park ground - that served as the Bluebirds' home for 99 years – the £48m Cardiff City Stadium was completed back in July, 2009. The venue was officially opened with an exhibition match against Celtic that month although two previous events had been staged there – another friendly against non-league side Chasetown and a club Legends game.

Cardiff City were a Championship team for their inaugural season in their new home, with the venue boasting a capacity of 26,828 when the 2009-10 campaign kicked off. The first competitive fixture at the Cardiff City Stadium took place on 8 August, 2009, as the Bluebirds cruised to a 4-0 league victory over Scunthorpe in front of a crowd of 22,264. The Welsh side ended the campaign in fourth position in the table, reaching the Championship Play-Off Final which they lost 3-2 to Blackpool here at Wembley Stadium.

During its debut season, the Cardiff City Stadium hosted its first-ever international match, as Wales beat Scotland 3-0 in a friendly on 14 November, 2009. In the years since, the venue has become the Dragons' main base and has staged 27 full internationals to date, including all five home qualifiers for UEFA Euro 2016. One of the most poignant occasions at the stadium came on 29 February, 2012, as Wales played Costa Rica in a Memorial Match for their late manager, Gary Speed.

On 16 April, 2013, a goalless draw with Charlton Athletic at the Cardiff City Stadium confirmed the Bluebirds' promotion to the Premier League, marking the club's return to the top flight after a 51-year absence. They sealed the Championship title a week later with a 1-1 draw away at Burnley. Malky Mackay's team beat Manchester City 3-2 in their first-ever Premier League home match, before drawing 0-0 with Everton on their own patch the following week.

We were the third Premier League visitors to the Cardiff

City Stadium on 22 September, 2013. A stoppage time goal at the end of the 90 minutes from Brazilian midfielder Paulinho gave us a 1-0 victory. The Bluebirds' relegation at the end of that season and subsequent four-year absence from the top-flight has delayed our return to CF11. Our Premier League match there this season is currently scheduled for New Year's Day 2019.

We had previously visited the Bluebirds' former Ninian Park ground on 24 occasions for competitive matches, where we won 11 games, drew seven and lost six. Across the Welsh capital, we played the League Cup Final of 2002 at Cardiff's Millennium Stadium – now known as the Principality Stadium for sponsorship purposes. We went down to a 2-1 defeat to Blackburn Rovers that afternoon, in front of a crowd of 72,500.

In 2014, the capacity at the Cardiff City Stadium rose to 33,280 with the addition of an extra tier of seating on the ground's Ninian Stand. That same year, the venue hosted the UEFA Super Cup match between Real Madrid and Sevilla, with a crowd of 30,854 watching on. The stadium's record attendance for a football match was set on 12 June, 2015, when 33,280 fans saw Wales beat Belgium 1-0 in a qualifying match for Euro 2016. Cardiff City's biggest gate there to date of 32,478 witnessed the goalless draw with Reading on May 6 this year that saw the Bluebirds confirm their latest promotion to the Premier League.

The Cardiff City Stadium served as the home of Cardiff Blues rugby union team between 2009 and 2012, prior to their return to the Arms Park while Harlequins beat Stade Français 19–18 to win the Amlin Challenge Cup Final there on 20 May, 2011. There have been a number of concerts at the ground, with performances from the likes of the Stereophonics, Bon Jovi and Rod Stewart. The venue also hosted the UEFA Women's Champions League Final on 1 June last year as Olympique Lyonnais beat Paris Saint-Germain 7-6 on penalties after a goalless draw after extra-time.

Paulinho's late goal gave us victory in Wales in 2013

The stadium has hosted four Premier League fixtures so far this season, with Newcastle United, Arsenal, Manchester City and Burnley having already visited the Welsh capital. While the Welsh national team will be staging their upcoming friendly with Spain on 11 October at the Principality Stadium, the Dragons will be returning to CF11 for their UEFA Nations League match with Denmark on 16 November.

OBITUARIES

We were sorry to hear of the passing of the following Spurs supporters:

DANIEL ASHLEY GOOCH, who passed away unexpectedly on 1 June at the age of 40. A committed lifelong Spurs fan, he has passed on his support for the club to his partner, son and daughter.

ALAN DAVIES, a club member and season ticket holder for the past 25 years, who passed away aged just 65 after a short illness. He will forever be missed by his wife Pat, daughter Joanna, son Richard, his extended family and all he met at the Lane.

DENNIS CONYNGHAM-FRANCIS, who passed away aged 85 on 17 September. A much-loved father and grandfather, he supported and attended Spurs games for over 40 years, giving him so much joy, especially in recent years.

We would like to extend our condolences to their families and friends at this sad time.

Global Spurs

Our supporters come from far and wide across the globe and are a well-travelled bunch – and we've got the photos to prove it! If you've had your photo taken proudly showing your colours abroad, then we want to see it. Send us your photos from around the world to programme@tottenhamhotspur.com

A Century of SEASONS — 100 —

THE 2018-19 SEASON MARKS OUR 100TH CAMPAIGN OF LEAGUE FOOTBALL. HAVING STARTED IN DIVISION TWO IN 1908-09 AND MISSING A NUMBER OF YEARS DUE TO TWO WORLD WARS, THIS TERM WE CELEBRATE A CENTURY OF SEASONS AND IN EACH MATCHDAY PROGRAMME, WE WILL REFLECT ON OUR PREVIOUS 99 CAMPAIGNS IN CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER

1928-29 A NEW EXPERIENCE

On the two previous occasions that we'd played league football in Division Two, we immediately bounced back to the top flight at the first time of asking…but not on this occasion.

The disappointment of having suffered such an unlikely relegation from the First Division in 1927/28 seemed to linger around N17 the following year and we just couldn't shake it off or, once again, find any consistency.

An opening day 4-1 win at home to Oldham Athletic was followed up two days later by a 2-5 defeat by Middlesbrough at the Lane and that pretty much summed up our season in the second tier. Manager Billy Minter was finding life difficult at the helm and, by the time we faced Southampton on 5 January, we were just four places and two points outside of the drop zone. A second successive relegation would have been a disaster.

But we beat the Saints 3-2 and rallied during the second half of the campaign, losing just two of our final 15 matches to surge into a final placing of 10th in the division. It wasn't where we wanted to be, but it could have been a whole lot worse.

Top Scorer: Frank Osborne (16)
Biggest Win: 4-1 v Chelsea (H), Oldham Athletic (H) and Hull City (H).
Biggest Defeat: 1-5 v Millwall (A)

MAIN MAN → JIMMY DIMMOCK

Having been with us during the highs and the lows of the previous 10 years, no-one wanted us to succeed on the pitch more than Jimmy Dimmock. But he missed a handful of matches in the early months as we struggled to find our rhythm and slipped down the table. His return to action in mid-November saw us beat Nottingham Forest and his goals throughout the remainder of the campaign were certainly significant in our upturn in fortunes.

KEY GAME

Spurs 3 Southampton 2
White Hart Lane
5 January, 1929

We'd gone seven games without a win and suffered three straight defeats when Southampton arrived in N17 for our first home game of 1929, a team that sat fourth in the table having only lost three times all season. But we produced when it mattered most. A penalty from Cecil Poynton gave us the lead and Taffy O'Callaghan also netted but the Saints levelled it up on each occasion. It was left to Frank Osborne to secure the win and two valuable points. 'Has the tide turned?' asked our subsequent match programme. The answer proved to be 'yes'.

Coldstream Guards and the Artillery at White Hart Lane, 1929

1929-30 CHANGE AT THE TOP

The 1929/30 campaign followed a similar pattern to the previous year as we started slowly before picking up in mid-season – the only difference being we changed manager's during the campaign.

We won just three of our opening 12 matches which virtually ended any hopes of gaining promotion even before the end of October. The return from injury of forward Ted Harper did give the team a boost and he scored the only goal of the game on his comeback against Swansea Town on 2 November.

But, by the time Bristol City visited the Lane three weeks later, manager Billy Minter had resigned, bringing to an end his 22-year spell with the club as player, coach and manager. The Board of Directors certainly didn't rush into appointing his successor and we played eight league matches without a manager until Percy Smith arrived from Bury to take charge.

He had an immediate impact, as we defeated second-placed Blackpool 6-1 in his first home game, but Smith's return to Bury in our next outing was not so enjoyable, his former club winning 2-1.

A disappointing end to the campaign saw us lose five or our last six, but a mid-table finish was secured.

DIVISION TWO

Manager: Billy Minter until November then Percy Smith
Final Position: 12th
Most Appearances: Cyril Spiers (42)
Top Scorer: Ted Harper (14)
Biggest Win: 6-1 v Blackpool (H)
Biggest Defeat: 0-4 v Preston North End (A)

MAIN MAN → TED HARPER

One of Billy Minter's last signings as manager, Ted Harper joined in early 1929 and ended the 1928/29 season in fine form with 11 goals in 11 league games for us. Missing through injury for the first part of 1929/30, he returned with a flurry of goals and ended the year with 14 strikes in just 19 matches.

KEY GAME

Spurs 6 Blackpool 1
18 January, 1930
Second in the table when they arrived in north London, Blackpool would go on to win the Division Two title this season, but we dismantled them in some style on this occasion. Percy Smith couldn't have asked for a more perfect introduction to life at the Lane following his arrival as manager from Bury as goals from Tom Meads, Billy Cook, Jimmy Dimmock and a Ted Harper hat-trick gave us a resounding win.

1930-31 SO CLOSE...

In his first full season in charge, manager Percy Smith so nearly restored us to the First Division, only for his side to suffer a slump in the final weeks of the campaign and miss out on promotion.

It had all started so well in 1930/31 as we recorded two of our biggest wins for many a season. An opening day 7-1 home win over Reading was followed up two days later with a staggering 8-1 defeat of Burnley at the Lane. No club in Football League history had ever scored 15 goals in their first two matches.

The big wins kept on coming as we beat Millwall (4-1), Charlton (5-0), Port Vale (5-0) and Bristol City (4-1) to maintain our push for promotion.

When West Brom arrived at White Hart Lane on 28 March, we were second in the table, nine points behind leaders Everton but three ahead of the Baggies, who had a game in hand. The 2-2 draw ensured we held that advantage but all of a sudden we lost our way.

Bottom club Cardiff City held us to draws at home and away within the space of four days as we managed just one win from our last eight matches. Promotion was still possible when we travelled to Burnley for the season finale, a point behind West Brom – but we lost 1-0 and had to spend another season in Division Two.

DIVISION TWO

Manager: Percy Smith
Final Position: 3rd
Most Appearances: Cyril Spiers (42)
Top Scorer: Ted Harper (36)
Biggest Win: 8-1 v Burnley (H)
Biggest Defeat: 1-4 v Bradford (A)

MAIN MAN → TED HARPER

Centre forward Ted Harper became the first Spurs player to score five goals in a league match when he netted his haul in the opening day 7-1 rout of Reading. It was the start of an impressive season for the frontman, who also scored four against Port Vale and a hat-trick against Oldham on his way to 36 goals in 30 league appearances this term.

KEY GAME

Spurs 1 Plymouth Argyle 1
11 April, 1931

We were still second in the table when Plymouth Argyle came to N17 in our fourth from last game of the season. Three draws and a defeat in our previous matches meant we were in desperate need of a win to stave off the challenge of West Brom but it wasn't to be as George Hunt's goal wasn't enough in the 1-1 draw and we dropped another valuable point.

1931-32 STUCK IN A RUT

Having gone so close to promotion the previous season, confidence was high at the club that this would be our year, but that wasn't to be the case.

Consistency issues that had plagued us for a good few seasons once again hampered our progress and a run of three wins from our first 13 league matches meant we were always behind the curve in the promotion race.

With Ted Harper suffering from injury again, the goalscoring responsibilities fell on the shoulders of George Hunt, who had joined us the previous season. He took a while to find his stride though and, when he did, our form improved too.

Consecutive home games in November against Swansea Town and Port Vale brought about 6-2 and 9-3 victories respectively and we started to climb the table. But we could never quite produce a string of wins which would have put pressure on the teams above us and had to settle for eighth place in the final standings.

Spurs battle Oldham at the Lane, 1932

DIVISION TWO

Manager: Percy Smith
Final Position: 8th
Most Appearances: Willie Davies (38)
Top Scorer: George Hunt (24)
Biggest Win: 9-3 v Port Vale (H)
Biggest Defeat: 1-5 v Bradford City (H)

MAIN MAN → GEORGE HUNT

Known as the 'Chesterfield Tough' for his no-nonsense approach and dour public demeanour, Hunt was a key signing who proved even more pivotal once Ted Harper was out injured. He scored back-to-back hat-tricks against Charlton and Wolves around the turn of the year and was a regular name on the scoresheet, scoring 24 times in 37 appearances in 1931/32.

KEY GAME

Spurs 6 Swansea Town 2
7 November, 1931

We only had nine points on the board from our opening 10 matches and the season could have gone either way when Swansea Town came to the Lane in early November. Unfortunately, we were on one of those disappointing runs, having not won in six, but managed to end that sequence with a convincing victory thanks to goals from Willie Davies (2), Willie Evans (2), George Hunt and Taffy O'Callaghan. Evans was making his debut.

SPURS AGAINST DISCRIMINATION

We do not tolerate discrimination of any sort at the Club, on the pitch or in the stands. If you experience any form of discrimination, help us to eliminate it from football by reporting it.

If you experience anti-social behaviour close to you, please send a text to 87474 with: FOUL (language & behaviour); RACISM (Racist chanting & shouting); HPH (Homophobic chanting); DRINK (Drinking alcohol in view of the pitch); SMOKE (Smoking in the stadium); STAND (Standing up); PYRO (use of or intended use of any pyrotechnic or smoke bomb), along with your location and the location of the offence – Block, Row, Seat. Foul, abusive and racist language will not be tolerated in this Stadium, but should you experience any of these and wish to report it, you can do so by texting the Control Room on the above number.

You do not have to put up with mindless supporters who are intent on ruining your day with us, so use the system, report the individuals and let us take it from there.

NO SWEARING IN THE STADIUM

We would like to remind all supporters that swearing is not permitted anywhere at Wembley Stadium.

NO SMOKING WITHIN THE STADIUM

We would like to remind all supporters that smoking – including e-cigarettes – is not permitted anywhere at Wembley Stadium.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED

Please remain in your seats during play to ensure that the view is not obstructed for other spectators.

SPURS ASSOCIATION

IN EACH PROGRAMME THIS SEASON, BILLY SHAW CONNECTS A MEMBER OF THE OPPOSITION'S SQUAD TO ONE OF OUR PLAYERS THROUGH A CHAIN OF FORMER TEAM-MATES, CLUBS AND MATCHES. TODAY, WE TRACE A PATH BETWEEN CARDIFF CITY CENTRE-BACK SOL BAMBA AND OUR DANISH INTERNATIONAL MIDFIELDER CHRISTIAN ERIKSEN

SOL BAMBA

Ever-present in all but one of Cardiff City's Premier League matches so far this season, centre-half Sol Bamba has had quite a footballing journey, taking him from France to Scotland, then England, to Turkey and Italy, back to England and finally to his current home in Wales. Born to Ivorian parents in France, the Ivory Coast international began his career at PSG before spending time at Dunfermline Athletic and Hibernian. From there, he first came to England with Leicester City in 2011, then joined Turkish side Trabzonspor and Italian outfit Palermo before being loaned to Leeds United. A permanent move to Elland Road swiftly followed and he's been a Cardiff City player since 2016, making 79 appearances and scoring seven goals for them to date.

DIDIER ZOKORA

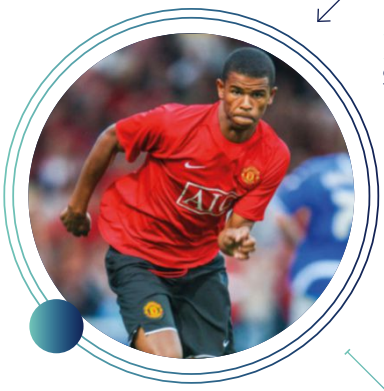
Bamba's fellow Ivory Coast international Didier Zokora hasn't just been team-mates with the defender at international level – both men played their club football for Trabzonspor in Turkey between 2012 and 2014. In fact, Zokora had been there for a year already by the time Bamba arrived. A defensive midfielder, Zokora won the League Cup with us in 2008 and made 134 appearances in our colours in total between 2006 and 2009. Having previously represented Genk and Saint-Etienne, he left us for Sevilla in Spain before heading to Turkey two years later.

FREDERIC KANOUTE

Striker Fredi Kanoute and Zokora missed each other at Spurs by a year, but they were team-mates at Sevilla. Born in France but representing Mali at international level, Kanoute started out at Lyon before West Ham secured his services at the turn of the millennium. He moved across London to join us in 2003 and scored 16 goals in 70 appearances before heading to Spain in 2005 – 12 months before Zokora joined us from Saint-Etienne. Infamously scoring in both legs of Sevilla's UEFA Cup quarter-final victory against us in 2007, Kanoute remained at the La Liga club for seven years, eventually being joined by Zokora in 2009. The striker finished his career with Chinese outfit Beijing Guoan between 2012 and 2013.

MICHAEL CARRICK

A central midfielder with a fine range of passing, Michael Carrick came up through the ranks at West Ham United and was around throughout Kanoute's three-year stint at Upton Park. Carrick followed the same path as Kanoute across the capital, swapping West Ham for Spurs, albeit a year later in 2004 and the pair spent a season as team-mates at White Hart Lane before the striker's departure in 2005. After 74 appearances and two goals for us, Carrick joined Manchester United in 2006 and spent the next 12 years at Old Trafford, playing a key role in their numerous trophy wins before finally hanging up his boots and joining the Red Devils' coaching staff this year.



FRAIZER CAMPBELL

Striker Fraizer Campbell came up through the ranks at United and, after a spell on loan at Royal Antwerp in Belgium, made his Premier League debut in the Manchester derby in August, 2007. He was briefly a team-mate of Carrick's at Old Trafford, but wasn't able to establish himself there and spent a lot of time out on loan, including spells at Hull City and with ourselves in 2008/09, where he scored three goals in 22 games. Permanent moves to Sunderland, Cardiff City, Crystal Palace and Hull City followed while he won a solitary cap for the England senior national team in a 3-2 friendly defeat to the Netherlands in 2012, during his time at the Stadium of Light.

TEEMU TAINIO

Also while he was at Sunderland, Campbell was briefly a colleague of Teemu Tainio in 2009. A long-serving Finland international who actually grew up supporting Spurs, the versatile defensive player signed for us from French club Auxerre and spent three years here between 2005 and 2008, winning the League Cup in his final season before heading to the north-east. Campbell joined him in red and white stripes in the summer of 2009 but Tainio moved to Birmingham City on loan a few weeks later, where he spent the remainder of the 2009/10 campaign. Tainio's son Maximus currently plays for our Under-18s.

CHRISTIAN ERIKSEN

Following Tainio's release by Sunderland in 2010, he signed a one-year contract at Dutch side Ajax, re-uniting with his former Spurs manager Martin Jol. His arrival coincided with Christian Eriksen's progression to becoming a key player in the first team at the Amsterdam ArenA and, although Jol departed mid-way through the 2010/11 campaign, the pair remained team-mates during that season, with defenders Jan Vertonghen and Toby Alderweireld also in the side. Of course, everyone of a Spurs persuasion is well aware of Christian's continued rise since that time. Joining us in 2013, the Danish international playmaker has to date scored 57 goals in 233 appearances for us but has missed some action of late through injury.
